

Molly's Vineyard Dry Creek Valley 2013 Reserve Petite Sirah

WILSON
OF DRY CREEK

Deep in Dry Creek Valley, these Petite Sirah vines of Molly's Vineyard dig roots into unusually deep hillside topsoil, composed of alluvial and volcanic soils. The vines enjoy a slow, even rate of maturity despite the warm western exposure. Hand-harvested and fermented in open-top vats with three daily punch downs, this wine is aged in French and American oak barrels for approximately 18 months.

TASTING NOTES

Dark-toned perfumey aromatics offer an essence of freshly ripened wild blackberry mingled with hints of coffee, earth and minerality. A velvety entry leads to a luxurious texture with edges of bright acidity. Dark berry, plum and creamy mocha meld with the supple tannins and integrating oak, and linger. This wine will further show its elegant side as the opulent flavors deepen and expand. Enjoy pairing with crown roast of pork served with a wild rice and sausage stuffing, or an apple-wood smoked turkey and cremini risotto.
