

2017 Dorothy's Syrah

Estate Collection, Dry Creek Valley

TASTING NOTES

Exhibiting a deep burgundy color, this Dry Creek Valley Syrah shows off nice legs when given a swirl. Robust aromas assail the senses with dark currant and a hint of licorice. The palate offers earthiness, dark boysenberry, and elegant Santa Rosa plum. Filling the mouth with succulent and chewy tannins, notes of black licorice, cigar box, and light leather stay with you through the super long-lasting finish.

PAIRING IDEA

Indian-spiced slow-roasted leg of goat and rosemary herbed potatoes.
